

WV Conservation Education Council's

"Hands On" Teachers Workshop

October 14-15, 2010, Fayetteville, WV

About the workshop

The "Hands On" Teachers Workshop is sponsored by the WV Conservation Education Council (WVCEC), with support from Georgia-Pacific and Plum Creek Timber Company. This workshop is intended to increase the knowledge and understanding of the dynamics of forest management. This workshop will provide knowledge and resource materials to all K-12 educators, as well as adult educators. The workshop includes programs by the WV Division of Forestry, WV Department of Environmental Protection, WV Conservation Agency, & others. Information on various conservation education programs, including Project Learning Tree (PLT), Envirothon, and Samara, will be included in the workshop. The workshop runs from 8:00am - 4:00pm each day, with time spent between classroom sessions and field trips.
